Questions and Answers on A Streetcar Named Desire

The reasons include the multiplicity of actors involved, the changing perceptions of the relative roles of the market and governments, and the accumulation of policies of past decades, many of which may have made sense when they were proposed, but now impose unsustainable burdens. It is argued that since God took away the blessing of being great and dominant nations from Israel and Judah and since the Gentiles for centuries have been dominant nations, that human rule is a blessing bestowed upon the Gentiles.

True To The Last: Alone on a Wide Wide Sea

There is still a need for heroes and these two truckers fit the bill nicely.
