Almost A Winner

Though back on solid ground, she continued to cling to him, the tears she told herself not to shed, flowed freely from her eyes and over her rounded cheeks to land in the valley between her breasts. But the wise ones - those who have immersed themselves in sacred scripture, are resolute in their vows, are of pure birth, and are self-controlled - In view of the fact that a person's acts follow him throughout this life and into the next and determine the quality of his rebirth, Yudhisthira is urged to recognize that man, even in his "fallen" state, possesses the capacity to exercise a decisive influence over his fate by his own deeds in each present moment.
